

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

240 acres well improved, 1 1/2 miles from Depot in Kas. Good spring. Best of terms. Will take 40 acres as part payment, balance long time at low interest.
200 acres 1 1/2 miles from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. Good buildings and land. Will take 40 or 80 acres as part payment
160 acres upland, 1 mile from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. $12,000.
160 acres Johnson county, Nebraska. 80 rods to church and school. Best of terms. Night rent.
107 acres near Brownville, Nebraska.
80 acres 1/4-mile from Falls City high school.
640 acres, $8,000 improvements. Also 640 acres adjoining. Will take 160 acres as part payment.
Fine running water. A No. 1 opportunity.
Money to loan.

The County in General

The "Doings" of our Country Friends and Neighbors.

HUMBOLDT

George McConnell spent Sunday in Lincoln.
John Power was down from Havelock over Sunday.

Mrs. Will Bobst has been quite sick the past week.

Fine new fixtures have been placed in the State bank.

O. R. Turner and family have moved into their new home.

Gale Thompson and family have recently moved to Auburn.

Lon Coons has returned from a visit with a brother in Beatrice.

Ed Wanrow and wife were over from DuBois Sunday visiting his parents.

Rev. Price and family departed this week for their future home at Nelson, Neb.

Mrs. Belle Hall of Hope, Kas, arrived here the past week on a visit to relatives.

M. D. Hearst was seriously ill this week at his home in the south part of the city.

Olive Petrashek left the past week for Peru where she will attend school this year.

J. L. Carpenter formerly of Rulo is now in charge of the south side restaurant.

Grandma Leatherman is spending the week with her granddaughter in Omaha.

Col. Harding has recently sold his farm of 50 acres at the edge of town for $11200.

Ray Gist and family have returned from an extended visit with relatives in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Fred Noble was down from Lincoln this week visiting her parents Dr. Gandy and wife.

Mrs. C. K. Cooper visited last week with friends in St. Joe and attended the military tournament.

Mrs. Will Clift and baby returned to Havelock Sunday after several weeks visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Wm. Westphal is reported seriously ill at her home south of town suffering from lung fever.

F. M. Hamilton and wife of David City, Iowa, are here on a visit to their son Rev. Hamilton and family.

Mrs. Gertrude Gird-Irwin, who had been here from Lincoln visiting her mother returned home Sunday.

Dr. Lewis of Welch, La, who had been visiting friends here departed Thursday for his southern home.

Will Bobst, who travels for a Chicago millinery house, came in off the road to spend Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Myrtle McCallum of Beatrice arrived here Sunday for a brief visit, returning home Sunday accompanied by her mother Mrs. Sutton.

Herb Mooney arrived in the city the past week from Hiawatha, Kas, and has accepted a place in Fisher's barber shop. He will move his family here in the near future.

L. J. Segrist and family are now domiciled in their fine new residence property. Harry Bowers and family will occupy the cottage vacated by Mr. Segrist.

Claud Filson who had been in the city renewing acquaintances with his boyhood associates has returned to his home in Seattle, Wash., where he holds the position of city water commissioner.

John Lampe, one of the progressive young stockmen of this section, won first prize in the St. Joe stock show last week on one of his Aberdeen Angus cattle.

W. E. Veits and wife and daughter, Mrs. Jesse Winn, having been in Humboldt visiting friends the past week. The family have recently moved from Nebraska City to a ranch near Grant, Neb.

A young son of John Gerdes, residing north of town was seriously injured one day the past week by being run over by a wagon load of cement one of the wheels partially passing over the boys chest, breaking several ribs and badly bruising his body.

To quickly check a cold, druggists are dispensing everywhere, a clever Candy Cold Cure Tablet called Preventics at the sneeze stage, to head off all colds. Box of 48-25c. Sold by all dealers.

BARADA

A. E. Butler was in Falls City Monday.

Harry Cline was a county seat visitor Monday.

Jesse Cox was a Falls City visitor on Saturday.

Grandma Thompson is up from Falls City for a visit.

Herman Heilman was a county seat visitor Monday.

Harry Slagle took a load of apples to Falls City Monday.

T. C. Roe and wife were Barada callers Sunday afternoon.

Robert Allen of Cambridge, Neb., visited relatives here last week.

A large number of young people took dinner at the Forest Hill Fruit farm.

Postmaster Martin entertained Post-office Inspector Grogan on Tuesday.

Grandma Bolejack visited her son Lee Bolejack near Shubert this week.

John Arrowsmith and wife of Alva, Oklahoma, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. R. H. Johnson of Parsons, Kas, is visiting her sister Mrs. Laura Mitchell.

Y. P. S. C. E. at Big Bethel next Sunday evening led by Miss Alice Yoder.

Ernest Slagle and family of Shubert were visiting John Rumbaugh and family Sunday.

Charles Allen of Rosalie is looking after his business interests here and visiting friends.

Robert Reddick and family of Humboldt visited several days last week with relatives here.

Miss Anna Franklin returned Friday from a two weeks visit with her sister Mrs. John Neeman.

Rev. E. Ratts of Lincoln conducted services at the Christian church Saturday evening and Sunday.

The frost failed to put the canning factory out of business and its merry whistle still gladdens the air.

W. E. Slagle spent Saturday and Sunday at home returning to Falls City on Monday to resume his duty as juror.

D. E. Spickler and wife went to St. Joe in their auto last week and spent several days taking in the tournament.

Allen Franklin and wife went to Stella Wednesday to attend the funeral of the son of their niece Mrs. Perry Shefferd.

One evening last week a large number of friends gathered at the home of F. L. Hartman and a very pleasant social evening was spent.

Rev. Teeter of Falls City, prohibition candidate for governor will lecture at the Bethel on Friday evening in the interest of the temperance cause.

Otis Spickler had as an honored guest on Thursday Hon. E. J. Burkett in making the trip to Auburn from Falls City by auto after Mr. Burkett's speech at the latter place.

Fulton Peters went to Rosalie, Neb; last week to visit his children who live there and from there he goes to South Dakota to take up land at the opening of the new reservation.

On last Saturday evening a gathering of many friends at the home of Mrs. Emma Kuhlman in honor of her birthday tended to make a regular holiday celebration. As a surprise it was a success entirely. All report a splendid time.

On Wednesday of last week the many friends of Otis Spickler gathered at his home to spend a merry evening. The purpose of the party was to surprise Otis, but he seemed very much prepared and at his ease. A delightful evening's entertainment was enjoyed by all. Nice refreshments were served.

Last Wednesday evening the teachers of the Barada schools and adjoining districts together with the pupils of the high school met and organized a reading circle to meet every Tuesday evening. Jesse Cox was elected president and Alice Yoder secretary. The study will follow the course laid down for Nebraska teachers.

A pain perscription is printed upon each 25 c. box of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Ask your doctor or druggist if this formula is not complete. Head pains, womanly pains, anywhere get instant relief from a Pink Pain Tablet. Sold by all dealers.

STELLA

J. W. Vaughn went to Omaha, Tuesday.

J. L. Griffith went to St. Joe, Wednesday.

A. L. Bright of Shubert was in town Tuesday.

Ernest Bright of this vicinity has the auto fever.

M. L. Jones of Shubert was in this city Wednesday.

Jos. Nedrow went to Falls City yesterday to see Taft.

Mrs. Chas. Shafer is visiting with relatives in Missouri.

Will Leslie of Shubert stopped here on his way to Omaha.

I. W. Harris spent Thursday in St. Joe at the horse show.

John Christy of Shubert was a business visitor here Saturday.

Jay Parsons and wife spent a few hours here Friday evening.

Dr. A. W. Montgomery was quite sick the first of the week.

John Vader and wife are here visiting his brother I. S. Vader.

Dr. Shook of Shubert drove to this place Thursday in his auto.

Mrs. J. D. Curtis of this place is visiting relatives at Brownville.

Christian Oberly of near Humboldt was a business visitor here Tuesday.

W. H. Hogrefe and wife are in Omaha attending the Ak-Sar-Ben.

Mrs. Viola Hays is having a new cistern dug where Roy Tomlinson now lives.

Wm. Johnson of Kansas City spent a few days in this vicinity the past week.

Esther Young is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Caroline Young the past week.

The ladies of the Methodist church are going to feed the hungry on election night.

The Happy Whist club has again enjoyed a pleasant evening in the bank office.

M. L. Lichter of Auburn is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Haskett this week.

Miss Katherine Mourer will attend the Midland College of Atchison. She will take music.

J. O. Hopper sold his farm to E. E. James of Falls City. Mr. James was in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. F. G. Wixon of this place went to Horton, Wednesday to attend the wedding of a cousin.

J. M. Goodloe and family and M. Anderson made a trip to Falls City Wednesday morning.

M. W. Knapp of Nemaha City was visiting his son, E. P. Knapp here Wednesday afternoon.

Gene Cain, of Falls City was a visitor with Mr. Fuller and his auto party Wednesday evening.

Ben and Dora Atwood went to Omaha, Friday to consult a specialist in regard to the formers health.

Rev. E. H. Gould was again chosen by the conference to have charge of the Methodist church for another year.

Chas. Pearson, who has been working in the west for the past few years returned to Stella to spend the winter.

Pearl Cunningham is taking a course in the Ensworth hospital at St. Joe. She is studying to be a trained nurse.

The Research club met with M. L. Hays and wife Friday and a large number of members and friends were present.

Mrs. Arabell McCullough received a nice box of pears from her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Messler of Caldwell, Idaho, the past week.

Mr. Phipps of Iowa was again at this place visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Winfrey. He returned to his home the last of the week.

Elmer Reimers left Thursday for Atchison to spend a few days. From there he went to Wichita, Kas., to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Dora Atwood of near Humboldt, while working over his threshing machine Thursday morning, fell and in some manner nearly tore the fingers off of one hand. He had the hand dressed and is getting along nicely.

Adams & Martin have the newest thing that has come to town and we wonder what next can be accomplished by the hands of man. They have an attachment for the Edison phonograph which plays a four minute record. The record makes 160 revolutions a minute and you can figure its rate. It has been a curiosity for sight seers.

SHUBERT

Miss Veva Bergsma is now attending school at Peru.

J. M. Evans was a business visitor to Nebraska City Saturday.

C. A. Lord was a business visitor at Nebraska City on Saturday.

C. A. Lord visited with friends at the county seat on Sunday.

Sheriff Fenton of Falls City was called here on business Saturday.

Wm Leslie was a business visitor at Omaha the greater part of the week.

J. C. Shulenberg and wife spent the greater part of last week in St. Joseph.

Mrs. V. M. Hunt of Auburn is here visiting old time friends and relatives.

Guy Hutchings and family were the guests of relatives at Falls City on Sunday.

Jake Birdsley and family spent Sunday with J. C. Shulenberg and wife Sunday.

Mr. Dalby and wife were the guests of Harvey Hall and wife at dinner on Sunday last.

Miss Rosie Weick entertained a friend from near Stella Saturday evening and Sunday.

M. T. Hill accompanied by his daughter Edith made a business trip to Falls City recently.

John Speece of Ord, Neb, is here looking after his farm interests also enjoying a visit with relatives.

Judd Parsons has purchased a new touring car, having made their first trip with their family on Tuesday.

Mrs. Quiggle who has been absent for several years arrived here from New York for a visit with relatives and friends.

Chas. Shulenberg had charge of the Burlington Cafe during the absence of his father in St. Joe. Chas. reports having a splendid trade.

Mrs. Walker arrived here from Ohio during the week. She expects to visit with her daughter Mrs. Wm. Albin and family here for some time.

Mrs. G. Halderman of Pike county, Ohio, arrived here during the week for a visit with her brothers Henry and Wm. Albin and families living near town.

Alfred Kinton and Miss Mamie Hall went to Falls City Tuesday where they were married. This couple has a host of friends here who extend congratulations.

John Shook returned to his home at Epworth Monday after a pleasant visit with relatives here. He was accompanied by Mr. Thompson of Falls City and John Whittle who expect to look up a location.

VERDON

Will Nedrow and wife spent the week at Lincoln.

Mrs. Joe Parsons was a county seat visitor Thursday.

Miss McCray spent Sunday with homefolks at Stella.

John Oswald was up from the county seat Wednesday.

W. H. Moran and wife visited relatives at Falls City Sunday.

Rev. Deck and wife returned to their home in Omaha Monday.

Ed Auxier and Bruce Nedrow attended the stock show at St. Joe last week.

Mrs. Anderson and son of North Bend, Neb, are visiting her mother here.

Rev. Deck and wife spent Wednesday at the home of Sam Auxier and wife.

Jim Houston was down from Nebraska City Monday on professional business.

Mrs. Clark arrived from Horton, Kas, Thursday on a visit to her daughter Mrs. Bowman.

O. P. Veal went to Lincoln Saturday to visit his little daughters who are staying there.

Wm. Sanders and wife were called to Nemaha Tuesday by the serious illness of his father.

Dan Ramsey and son Jay, Lon and Jud Parsons went to Shubert Tuesday in the latter's auto.

Mr. Howard returned to his home at North Bend Sunday after a pleasant visit to relatives here.

Henry Corn, Dr. Griffith, W. C. Sloan, Wallace Arnold, Bert Stevens and Fred Heineman were Falls City visitors Wednesday.

On Monday morning while unhitching Grace Auxier fell and cracked the small bone in her right arm. Dr. Griffith dressed her arm and she is getting along nicely.

RULO

Heavy frost Sunday and Monday nights.

Mary Thilrger was a visitor here last week.

Rev. Maze was down from Dawson this week.

Charlie Fredric was a Falls City visitor Monday.

Charlie Huber was an Atchison visitor Tuesday.

Garnett Wilson of Preston spent Sunday here.

Burns Cotton and family spent Sunday in Rulo.

Fred Urtzche was a visitor here one day last week.

Helen Gates of Nebraska City is visiting her mother.

Herman Bodnie visited in Atchison the last of week.

Alice and Alta Gilbert were St. Joe visitors Saturday.

J. A. Osborn was a St. Joe visitor one day last week.

Isem Briant of Rushbottom was here one day last week.

Ed Hinkle of Fortescue visited relatives here last week.

John Kanaly and wife spent two days in St. Joe last week.

Mrs. Whalen spent a couple of days in St. Joe last week.

Abe Liberty of Chester visited with friends here Sunday.

Newton Hosford returned Friday from a visit to Lincoln.

U. T. Duncan was a business visitor here one day last week.

Semour Coupe and family moved in from the farm last week.

Ross Mann of White Cloud spent last week with relatives here.

Dave Anderson of Kansas was a visitor here one day last week.

W. B. Hinton of Omaha was transacting business here Monday.

Leslie Inks went to Forest City Tuesday for a few days visit.

J. M. Gustafson of Wymore was a business visitor here Saturday.

Robert Hoback of Kansas was a business visitor one day last week.

E. C. Walbridge of Falls City was a visitor here one day last week.

Herman Kloeppel and family spent last week with St. Joe friends.

George and Unkie Hopkins were visiting in Atchison Saturday.

Lucia and Katy Santo of St. Joe are visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Wm. Carico of Falls City spent last week with her mother here.

Mac Vastine departed on a business trip to Grand Island Sunday night.

A. C. Graves moved recently into the south half of Mrs. Hosford's house.

Charlie Caverzagie and wife were St. Joe visitors the first of the week.

George Huckett, traveling engineer for the Burlington was here Monday.

Mrs. Susan Boles returned this week from a visit with Falls City relatives.

Mrs. Emma McVey returned Sunday from a visit with relatives in St. Joe.

Ferd Huber of Lincoln visited with his brother Charles and family last week.

J. W. Mann of White Cloud was transacting business here one day last week.

Grandpa Marcum returned Monday from Denver where he has spent the summer.

Fred Brown and family of Falls City spent Sunday at the home of Frank Robison.

F. E. Kulp of Wymore was looking after the Burlingtons interests here last week.

Cecil Kanaly came down from Salem Saturday for a short visit with the home folks.

John Pope moved from the north part of town into the house vacated by A. C. Graves.

Will Calkins came down from Table Rock Saturday night and spent Sunday with his family.

Gus Johnson came down from Nebraska City last week to do some painting on the Missouri river bridge.

Goose Gesser of Nebraska City visited with his brothers family last Friday, from here he went to St. Joe.

Mrs. John Anderson and little granddaughter departed Friday for North Burrow, Iowa, to visit her daughter.

Mrs. Joe Elrich and children of Hopkins, Mo., have been visiting Mr. Kermod and family the past two weeks.

On Wednesday, September 23, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emma Kern, her eldest daughter, Edith was united in marriage to Harry Bradford. At high noon, to the strains of the wedding march, the bride and groom took their places under a canopy of smilax and roses, from the center of which hung a huge wedding bell. In an impressive manner Rev. Bennet Maze spoke the words which united them for life. After congratulations all repaired to the dining room where a three course luncheon was served. The bride wore a white princess empire and carried a bouquet of white roses and ferns. She is well known having spent most of her life here. She was one of the Richardson county's successful teachers. The groom wore the conventional black. He made this place his home for the past three years, and in that time made many warm friends. The happy couple will make their home in Wymore. With showers of rice and good wishes the young couple left for St. Joe, Atchison, Kansas City and Omaha. Only the relatives and intimate friends were present. Those present from out of town were Will Carico and wife, John Carico and wife and Fred Deitrich and wife all of Falls City.

Harry Bradford and wife spent a short time between trains Sunday with relatives here. They were on their way to visit relatives in Nebraska City.

Mac Anderson, foreman of the depot gang, was called to his home in Ashland last week by the serious sickness of his little daughter.

OHIO

John Hutchison spent last week in Omaha.

Frances Smith and wife visited with his parents Sunday.

Art Surman of Armour, Neb. was the guest of Guy Prine.

Mrs. Perry Shaffer spent Friday with Mrs. Earl Shaffer.

E. H. Kiker of near Barada spent Sunday in this vicinity.

Anson Kinsely and wife were guests of Cleon Peck and wife Sunday.

Della and Willie Knisley entertained a number of their cousins Sunday.

Frank Shaffer and family were guests of relatives in Falls City.

Mrs. Frank Gypsum spent part of last week with her brother, Guy Prine.

Chas. Stump and wife of Falls City were guests of Will Bartlett and wife.

Mrs. Geo. Sturns and children were guests of Mrs. Everett Higgins Sunday.

Pheneas Fisher is attending a meeting at Kearney and leading the singing.

Mrs. A. Darveau and children of Rulo visited with her mother last week.

Allie Dowty is hauling lumber from Preston to build an addition to his house.